Retiree Network

Stay in the fight for ONA members and our public health care.

RETIREE MEMBERSHIP

Members of the Ontario Nurses' Association (ONA) can stay involved in their union after retirement by becoming a retiree member. Retiree members can access various benefit programs, participate in union meetings, and join the Retiree Network. There is no cost to becoming a retiree member. Learn more about eligibility and complete the application at the link below.

RETIREE NETWORK

By joining the Retiree Network, you will have the chance to connect with other retirees and current members and take action on the issues that matter to you. This includes pressuring decision-makers to improve our health care through campaigns and actions. An active Retiree Network strengthens our movement across Ontario.

ADVISORY TEAM

One retiree member from each of ONA's five regions make up an advisory team that helps guide the network. The current team is listed below.

- Region 1: Kelly Latimer
- Region 2: Anne Clark
- Region 3: Carolyn Edgar
- Region 4: Jean Kuehl
- Region 5: Sandra Kravets
