FAIRNESS FOR NURSES

at Southwestern Public Health

Without fair wages and respect, nurses can't provide the high-quality care our communities need and deserve.

SUPPORT NURSES
for better care.

Nurses at Southwestern Public Health (SWPH) are fighting for fair wages and respect in the workplace.

What do our public health nurses do?

- Serve 200,000+ residents in Oxford County, Elgin County and the City of St. Thomas.
- Provide clinics, health services, health policy, outbreak management and home visits for children, families and older adults.
- Keep communities, workplaces, schools and health-care settings strong and healthy.

While paying nurses rock bottom wages, SWPH:

- Withheld money that could have been spent on front line nurses.
- Increased the CEO's salary by 45.4 per cent, compared to nurses who got a 7.4 per cent increase over 5 years.
- Continues to disrespect nurses despite the high-quality care they provide.
